Orphans' Home Entertainment.

Dr. Brownfield will give an entertainment at Hamilton hall Wednesday evening, September 26. Dr. Hamilton will kindly donate the use of the hall for this entertainment. Persons who know of the entertainments Dr. Brownfield has given on West third street will have some idea of how pleasant a concert may be expected at Hamilton hall tomorrow evening. In addition to the concert there will be a supper. Nebel & Johnson will furnish the milk and mush and the ladies of the orphans' home will have charge of the doughnuts and coffee. All expenses are donated and the entire proceeds of this entertainment goes to the orphans' home.

In addition to this Dr. Brownfield donates $25. Fifteen cents will be charged at the door, and this will give a ticket for the concert and one course of refreshments, either milk and mush or coffee and doughnuts.

The managers of the orphans' home hope its friends will give a generous turn out at this entertainment. The winter is coming on, times have not improved and there will be many friendless little waifs who will have to be fed, clothed and taken care of. During the present month there have been twenty-three children in the home. This means sixty-six meals a day, 462 meals a week or 1,848 meals during the month. In this estimate the meals of the children alone are considered, those of the help are not included. It takes money to carry on a work like this, and the home has always appreciated the fact that it is a very popular charity and the public has always responded very generously to its appeals for help.

Orphans' Home Entertainment.

An opportunity to do so much good for so little money is seldom given the public. 15 cents will admit you to Dr. Brownfield's entertainment at Hamilton's hall, Wednesday evening, September 26, and will also entitle you to a bowl of delicious mush and milk, furnished by Nebel & Johnson, or to a bowl of delicious Mocha and Java coffee and doughnuts, that you will enjoy like those you ate in the days "long ago." We hope everybody will bring himself along and see that his neighbor goes with him. The money that you bring to this entertainment means a comfortable home, warm fires, nourishing food, and good care to many homeless and friendless children. "Inasmuch as ye do it unto them ye do it unto me."

STOP THESE FIGHTS.

Prize Fighting in Topeka Has Gone Far Enough.

NOW MAKE ARRESTS RIGHT AWAY.

Neither County Attorney Safford Nor Chief Lindsey Are Doing Their Duty.

At the end of the street car line at Lowman Hill last night, there was a prize fight between Mike West and Harry Hoffmaster for a purse of thirty dollars and West won it in five rounds.

It was the same West that whipped young Barabini near Washburn college on Sunday in two rounds.

The sports had a hard time to find a place to have the fight unmolested last evening. It was first announced among the elect that the fight would take place at Oakland park. At the last moment it was changed to the fair grounds, but Chief Lindsey and some officers in a hack appeared on the scene and the crowd dodged them and went to Lowman Hill, where they were successful in getting a five round entertainment.

It is said the fighters used six-ounce gloves. The fight took place in a vacant lot and was witnessed by about one hundred and fifty men and boys. There were several knock downs, and in the fifth round West suddenly swung his right under Hoffmaster's heart, and the latter dropped like a log. He was up in nine seconds, but fell again without being hit, and failed to respond to the tenth second. The combatants were less than twenty years of age.

County Attorney Safford and Chief of Police Lindsey are certainly neglecting their duty if they do not arrest and punish these violators of the law. This disgraceful business has gone far enough and should be stopped. If the officers of the law are not going to do their duty in the matter of prize fights, we want to know it quick.

There has been altogether too much dodging of responsibility lately, and loud complaints are coming from all the best classes of the city if Chief Lindsey doesn't propose to make arrests, that is no reason why County Attorney Safford shouldn't proceed against these parties at once. The inaction of the public officers in these matters is an outrage on decency, and that is the mildest term that can be used.

KAFFIRS WILL ATTACK.

Several Thousand Threaten the Town of Lorenzo, Which Is Poorly Protected.

LORENZO MARQUEZ, Delagoa Bay, Sept. 25.—Several thousand Kaffirs are threatening to attack this town. The government has distributed arms among the white population for defense. Serious trouble is expected. Lorenzo Marquez is a small Portuguese town of Africa, on the north side of Delagoa bay.

It has a good harbor, which give it considerable importance in the trade with the Transvaal. The town has a population of about 3,000, and is protected by a number of roughly constructed old forts. The town is situated in the southern portion of the province of Portuguese East Africa which extends to the coast for the north, of the Zambesi to Delagoa bay and is bounded in by Mashonaland, Matabele and Transvaal.

The Transvaal leaders have long been anxious to secure control of the Delagoa Bay railroad and they have also been ambitious to have a seaport. Lorenzo Marquez is preferred. With this object in view the boers recently sent a sum of $250,000 in London in order to purchase the bonds which Portugal is expected to issue as soon as the Berne arbitrators have decided the question of boundaries.

A few days ago, on September 15, advice from Pretoria stated that the Transvaal government had acquired the prior rights in Delagoa bay, including control of the port duties, thus giving the Transvaal a commanding position and free access to the sea.

A. R. U. MEN SENTENCED.

Calderhead is president of the local A. R. U. and is a Populist candidate for the state senate. Thirteen other defendants were discharged for lack of evidence.

WON'T HAVE RACING NEWS.

White Pieces of Paper Pasted Over It in Birmingham, Eng., Library.

BRIMINGHAM, Eng., Sept. 25.—The Birmingham and Aston free library committees have decided to obliterate all racing and betting news from the newspapers on file in the library under their control. With this object in view the committees are causing white pieces of paper to be pasted over such news as soon as the papers are received for filing.

TO ANTAGONIZE UNIONS.

Employers' and Builders' League to Devise Ways and Means Against Them.

NEW YORK, Sept. 25.—At a meeting of the Employers' and Builders' league last night John P. Lee was elected permanent president and Francis J. Schuch vice president. The object of the organization, as announced by President Lee, is to devise ways and means to antagonize union labor in the building trades.

Twenty-seven builders, twenty carpenters, three stair builders and twenty-six painters signed the roll. The organization aims to deal with the individual laborers rather than with the unions.

FOUGHT OVER A GIRL.

Young Men Were Going to Have a Duel but Couldn't Wait.

ANDERSON, Ind., Sept. 25.—Orral Johnson and William Malone, two young men of this city, were to have fought a duel in North Anderson last night. They met, and while their seconds were making out the ground and making the arrangements the two principals got into a fight which resulted in Malone's being "laid out stiff" and rendered unable to proceed. Both the young men are prominent socially. The trouble arose over a girl.

MARY LEASE'S BET.

She Has Wagered a $50 Suit With J. K. Hudson On the Election.

Mrs. Mary E. Lease, who is speaking at a Populist rally at Bonner Springs today, was in Kansas City last evening, and in an interview told of a bet she made with Major J. K. Hudson of the Capital. She said: "The Populists will carry Kansas by about 80,000. Do you know, it was a discussion upon this very subject that led me to make my first bet? Joe Hudson of the Topeka Capital and myself were talking one day and I said the Populists would win. Hudson differed. He had confidence in the Republicans, and offered to bet a $50 dress against a $50 suit of clothes that the Republicans would win. I did not want to bet, and said I was afraid. He laughed at me, and said I was not afraid I would lose but that I had never made a bet, and was a little timid. I finally took it however, and the bet is duly recorded. The fall elections shall decide who shall wear the new clothes. He has one advantage, though. Fifty dollars will buy a splendid suit of clothes, but not an extra fine dress."

The reporter reminded her that she rode home from Pullman, where she recently went on a tour of investigation, in a Pullman car, to which she said: "Yes, I usually ride in a Pullman if I have very far to go, as it is more comfortable. I am not sure, however, that I have no Pullman pass. If I had one I should undoubtedly use it. That is if I had one. I don't believe that any person pretending to be an advocate of reform should accept a Pullman pass and thus place himself under obligations to that company. A pass always places the holder under some sort of obligations to the giver. The papers have said that the governor and some state officers of Kansas have Pullman passes. I never saw it denied and suppose for that reason that it is true. Any pretended reformer who accepts such favors betrays his people whom he accepts them. I wish I could denounce such conduct so loud that I could be heard from one end of this country to the other."

The speaker raised her voice as though almost tempted to make an attempt and added: "I want you to say if you say anything, that I have no Pullman pass. At Pullman I was told that it was possible terms Carroll D. Wright, the labor commissioner, who was there with a Pullman pass in his pocket. I held him up to the workmen as an example of perfidy, which the workmen appreciated. As a friend of workmen, don't believe in placing myself under obligations to the worst enemies of workmen."

THE JEFF DAVIS LIBEL.

The Alleged Slander of His Pastor, Rev. G. D. Olden, on Trial Today.

The only case on trial in the district court today is that of Jefferson Davis the colored "silver tongued orator" who is charged with having criminally libeled Rev. G. D. Olden, pastor of the colored Baptist church. He charged that Mr. Olden embezzled funds at his former charge in Chattanooga, Tenn. Whether the stories are true or not Jeff talked about the affair a great deal. He went so far as to have a circular printed and circulated about town in which the scandal was told in full.

Rev. Mr. Olden's side of the case is that he doesn't object to the right kind of an investigation but he doesn't want to be "investigated" by the leader of the discontented element in his church.

Elder Barker of the North Topeka colored Baptist church was put on the witness stand and questioned regarding the details of the denunciation when Davis charged that pastor's integrity arose in the church. The elder replied that the investigation devolved upon a church council, and that Davis had taken the wrong mode of having the pastor's record brought to light.

Davis is defended by J. G. Waters, L. S. Ferry and T. F. Doran.

JAPANESE POLITICS.

There May be an End of Factions in Japan Soon.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 25.—The assembling of the new Japanese parliament on October 15, may be the occasion according to advice received in diplomatic circles here, of a political union or reconciliation between factions which have been hitherto irreconcilable.

When the last Japanese parliament dissolved, the leaders of the different parties were awaroid one another, but in the presence of war with a power of China's magnitude involving the supremacy of the orient, the old personal feuds have been set aside and efforts are being made to have all factions represented through their leaders in the new Japanese cabinet.

RICH GOLD FINDS.

A Mexican Placer Miner Takes $2,000 Out of a Pocket Near Phoenix.

DENVER, Col., Sept. 25.—A special from Phoenix, Ariz., to the New York press counts a rich gold find. A Mexican placer miner, working fifteen miles from Phoenix, discovered a rich float that had been turned up by the recent rains.

Following it up he found a pocket from which he took over $2,000 worth of gold. Since then the Spaniard and two companions have taken out $5,000. Further searches resulted in the discovery of a rich ledge.

ACCUSED IN ROME.

Archbishop Corrigan Said to be Charged With Conspiracy.

NEW YORK, Sept. 25.—The World this morning publishes a page story stating that Archbishop Corrigan is accused in Rome of a conspiracy. The document is said to be signed by some of the leading Catholics of the country. The old charge is brought out to the effect that the archbishop, through the assistance of Michael Walsh, secured the publishing of articles in the Catholic press severely reflecting upon SATILLI.

FRANK JAMES IN ST. LOUIS.

He Has Left the Race Track for the Theater Business.

St. Louis, Sept. 25.—A modestly dressed man, wearing a dark brown overcoat over a business looking suit of gray cashmere, a pleated bosom white shirt, a polkadotted scarf with a diamond scarf pin, took his place at the door of the Standard theater last night. He was none other than Frank James, the once noted desperado, train robber and highwayman. He was tendered the position a few days ago and accepted it.

"Yes," said he, "I have abandoned the race course forever; there is no money in it. It has ceased to be profitable. Then there is another reason why I have given it up. I have a son who is now 17 years of age, and it is natural to suppose that if I had continued in the business he would have drifted into it also."

"I do not say that the business is disgraceful; oh no, not that; for I have met hundreds of gentlemen on the track. Some of my best friends are there. But of course, there are bad ones to be found on a race course, and somehow or other you cannot tell why exactly, but these are the kind a young man generally falls in with."

"I have, therefore, forsaken a following that has afforded me much amusement and entertainment for his sake."

"In the future I will be in the theatrical line, not on the stage but in the business office or at the door or somewhere near about where money is taken in. I have commenced at the bottom round and expect to work my way gradually up. There is money in the business when you work it right."

"So you will never go on the stage?"

"Never. I have no merit in that line and no sort of practice would make me an actor. I have had plenty of opportunities to go before the footlights. Immediately after my acquittal and vindication, I was offered $52,000 a year by a New York company but I declined it."

"In the future my home will be in St. Louis. I am tired of roaming around. I shall try to find my son a place in a commercial house and we will live together. To make a quiet, steady, sober man of him, is now my highest ambition."

THREE BOYS FOR DENVER.

They Beat Their Way and Eat Cold Potatoes When They Can.

The police this morning fed three young, clean and intelligent looking boys, who had applied for a favor of just that kind. Two of the boys, Jim and Joe Davis, aged respectively 17 and 15, are from Denver, and John Howe lives at Minneapolis, Minn. He is seventeen years old.

They met in Chicago this summer where they had been loafing about the streets and doing what little work they could get to do. They are now on their way to Denver for the winter.

There is a board against the wall for just such people to eat from, but there are no chairs and the boys knelt on the floor and ate their cold steak, and potatoes, and biscuits, and pie and hot coffee from a big tin plate, using their fingers for the preparation.

"How are you going to Denver without any money?" asked the reporter, by way of opening the conversation.

"Humph," said one of the boys, "you must be green. Beat our way, of course."

"How do you ride?"

"On the trucks—anywhere. Get fired off sometimes, but that don't count. Course we get separated sometimes, but we always have a place to meet."

The boys will get a train out this afternoon or tonight, headed west.
